required information

By signing this registration form you register for the dance classes and the Winter Ball.

If you disobey or miss classes without a written explanation, you can be expelled from the dance class.. In that case, tuition is not refunded. During the dance classes pairing of dancers might be rotated as this is part of learning how to dance with various partners. In regards to partners for the Winter Ball, the wishes of the students will be taken into strong consideration by the teacher.

I confirm having read the information and rules of the dance class!
