PRESCHOOL TEACHER (PART-TIME) AFTERNOON PROGRAM

Who we are:

The German International School Washington D.C. (GISW) is a leading international school in the Washington DC metro area. For over 60 years, GISW has been teaching children from preschool through twelfth grade. Aside from being the first MINT-EC school in the USA, GISW offers a U.S. High School Diploma as well as a German International Abitur (DIA) to its students.

The German International School Washington D.C. seeks a teacher for the Preschool's Afternoon Program.

OPENING BEGINS:

Immediately (or 2026/27 school year)

GENERAL INFORMATION:

The hours for the Afternoon Program are Monday-Friday, 1:15 pm - 5:15 pm.

Pay Range: $30,640 - $45,325 per school year

DESCRIPTION:

- Supervising a group of children aged 2–4 during nap time, playtime, and on the playground
- Planning age-appropriate activities
- Introducing children to the German language and helping them develop their language skills
- Understanding the preschool's core principles and putting its mission statement into practice
- Strong ability to communicate effectively with colleagues, children, and parents (in German or English), including via email when necessary
- Participation in professional development training and staff meetings

REQUIREMENTS:

- Meets all requirements to be certified as an early childhood educator under the regulations of the Office of Child Care (OCC)
- Degree in Early Childhood Education or an associate's degree in Early Childhood Education or a related field
- At least one year of professional experience in a licensed kindergarten or preschool
- All instruction is conducted in German. Excellent written and spoken German skills are therefore expected, and good English language skills are also required
- Flexibility and the willingness to work independently
- A team-oriented approach with strong communication skills to collaborate effectively with colleagues, parents, and children
